

THE INTERNATIONAL LAW COMMITTEE,
THE COUNCIL ON INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS, AND
THE INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMITTEE
OF THE ASSOCIATION OF THE BAR OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK
AND
THE INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMITTEE OF THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION SECTION OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

Present:

The Present Mandate and the Potential Jurisdiction of the United States Court of International Trade

What is happening at the United States Court of International Trade and in Congress to expand the Court's jurisdiction? The CIT is one of the country's most unique and historic courts, and of great relevance to the country. Hear directly from Chief Judge Jane A. Restani, a pre-eminent authority on International Trade Law, on the present mandate and potential future jurisdiction of the CIT. Congress has not yet passed the proposed United States Court of International Trade Improvement Act, which would enhance the mandate and scope of CIT's jurisdiction. If the legislation is enacted, it will impact business by multinational corporations investing in the United States. Bring your questions and join this cutting-edge presentation.

Speaker: Chief Judge Jane A. Restani of the United States Court of International Trade

Tuesday, March 2, 2010

Time: 7:00pm – 9:00pm

The Association of the Bar of the City of New York
42 West 44th Street, New York, New York

Please register at www.nycbar.org/EventsCalendar/show_event.php?eventid=1308