The centerpiece of the World Trade Organization (WTO)
Bali Package from December 2013 was the Trade Facilitation Agreement (TFA), the first new multilateral agreement in the WTO since its creation nearly 20 years ago. The TFA intends to facilitate global trade by improving transparency, streamlining clearance procedures, and reducing red tape at the border.

Please join us for a dynamic discussion on the next steps of this landmark WTO Agreement.

Thank you to our co-sponsors!
