Why Attend?

2016 will be a year of decision for trade and customs law — with change on the horizon for both your practice and clients. The 2016 International Trade Update is a can't-miss opportunity to equip yourself, your organization, and your clients with solutions to meet the challenges of the year to come. We will provide you with the information, resources, and industry connections you need to be more effective as an advocate and advisor.

At the Update you will:

- » Receive a detailed review of the past year and predictions for the year ahead
- » Learn through best practices in adult education, including the use of hypotheticals and small-group discussion
- » Participate in interactive sessions on rules of origin, the intersection of customs and trade, and two moot arguments with sitting judges
- » Network with fellow attendees, faculty, and members of the Advisory Board at an evening reception, special lunch, and a new buffet breakfast

With 15 sessions, you will have access to all the hot topics. Registration includes a complimentary mid-year webinar that will keep you abreast of developments in the practice area. Whether you're in-house, private practice or government, this conference will provide you the latest views on trade and customs law and policy.

Special Needs or Dietary Restrictions

Email cle@law.georgetown.edu or call 202-662-9890.

Scholarships

Georgetown Law CLE endeavors to provide equal educational opportunities to all. We provide a limited number of scholarships on a case-by-case basis for both live programs and webcasts. Apply online at www.law.georgetown.edu/cle or submit your written request no later than 5:00 pm ET on Thursday, February 4, 2016.

Cancellations/Rain Checks/Substitutions

Cancellation and rain check notices must be received by 5:00 pm ET on Thursday, February 18, 2016 for a refund (less $100 administrative fee). Rain checks for a future program will be granted for cancellations received after February 18 and prior to the start of the program. Substitutions are accepted at any time prior to the program. Registration for the live program is not transferable to the webcast or bonus on-demand access.

Course Materials

Course materials will be distributed prior to the program. Registrants will receive an email from the Georgetown Law CLE office at least one week before the program.

Satisfaction Guaranteed

We are confident you will value the information sharing and networking at this conference. However, if you feel you have not received your money's worth by the end of the program, please contact a member of our registration team before leaving the conference. All refund requests will be reviewed carefully and are subject to approval by the Assistant Dean for Academic Conferences and Continuing Legal Education.

CLE Credit

Accreditation has been or will be requested for the International Trade Update from most states with mandatory continuing legal education requirements for 10.5 CLE credits (based on a 60-minute hour), including 2.0 ethics credits and 12.6 CLE credits (based on a 50-minute hour), including 2.4 ethics credits. Georgetown Law is an accredited CLE provider in most MCLE states. Georgetown Law CLE is a State Bar of California-approved MCLE provider. Please note that this program is eligible for only Nontransitional CLE credit in New York.

Some states require nominal accreditation fees. You will be asked to submit payment at the program's conclusion.

MCLE state credit rules vary for online CLE. Please check online at <https://georgetown.inreachce.com/> to see if the program has been approved in your state. We will apply upon request in some states; alternatively, many states allow attorneys to apply on their own.

Bonus On-Demand Access

This add-on includes access to all recorded sessions post-program. You may receive CLE credit for new sessions online. You cannot claim credit for taking the same sessions in person and online. If you register for this option, you will receive a separate email providing you with additional information on how to access the content online.

Can't Attend in Person?

This program will be available via webcast and on-demand. Scheduled replays of this program will take place June 24, 2016.
