

Enforce and Protect Act (EAPA) Workshop

When: March 14, 2017

9:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Where: 1717 H. St., NW; 7th Floor, Room C

Involved in EAPA Allegations?

CBP is offering this free workshop to provide valuable information to parties who are filing allegations or defending against allegations such as:

- An opportunity to engage with CBP officials who enforce trade laws and specifically, EAPA investigations;
- A walkthrough of a sample case with the team to learn CBP's procedures and the actions CBP takes to pursue an investigation; and
- Gaining guidance on how to develop strong allegations and learn more about the role of parties in EAPA proceedings.

Speakers include Brenda Smith, Office of Trade (OT) Executive Assistant Commissioner; Troy Riley, OT, Trade Remedy Law Enforcement Directorate (TRLED), Executive Director;

Robert McMillan, OT, Regulatory Audit, Executive Director;

Carrie Owens, Director of Enforcement Operations, TRLED; and more!

U.S. Customs and Border Protection

Due to limited space, registration will be first-come, first-serve. Please contact RAEAPA@cbp.dhs.gov to register and for questions.