

ANDREW P. VANCE MEMORIAL WRITING COMPETITION

SPONSORED BY THE CUSTOMS AND INTERNATIONAL TRADE BAR ASSOCIATION AND BROOKLYN LAW SCHOOL

2006-2007

The Competition	Prizes
The Customs and International Trade Bar Association (CITBA) and Brooklyn Law School (BLS) are sponsoring this Writing Competition to encourage law students who are interested in careers in customs and international trade law. Winning papers will be considered for publication in the Brooklyn Journal of International Law.	Two prizes will be awarded: $1000.00 first prize $500.00 second prize Awards will be presented at the CITBA's semi-annual dinner in the fall.
Who is Eligible	Topics
Entrants must be currently enrolled in a J.D. or L.L.M. program at any of the nation's law schools.	An in-depth analysis of a current issue relevant to customs and international trade law.
Paper Requirements	About the Sponsors
Submissions should be typewritten, double-spaced on 8 1/2 x 11 inch paper. The paper shall not exceed 40 pages in length, including footnotes. Papers must include footnotes, not endnotes. Papers should be in 12pt. Times Roman font and have one-inch margins (right, left, top, and bottom). Noncompliance with these requirements may affect evaluation or result in disqualification. Please include the following on the cover sheet of your paper:	Customs and International Trade Bar Association  The Customs and International Trade Bar Association is the only national bar association dedicated to representing the interests and concerns of attorneys engaged in the practice of customs and international trade law. Founded in 1919, CITBA strives to maintain and improve standards of practice and to promote the public interest.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▶ Full name, address and telephone number</li> <li>▶ Law school and year</li> <li>▶ Date of submission of paper</li> </ul> Papers must be received at Brooklyn Law School, 250 Joralemon Street, Brooklyn, N.Y. 11201, care of Professor Claire R. Kelly, no later than May 11, 2007.	Brooklyn Law School  Brooklyn Law School is an independent, nonprofit educational institution committed to providing the highest quality legal education. Founded in 1901, BLS is a leader in the study and research of international law. The Brooklyn Journal of International Law is one of the nation's oldest scholarly publications focusing on international law. Both the Journal and the BLS Center for the Study of International Business Law provide valuable forums for the study of customs and international trade law.
Judges	About the Honoree
A committee of practicing attorneys and professors with relevant expertise will judge the papers. The following factors will be considered:	Andrew P. Vance  The writing award honors the memory of Andrew P. Vance, past president of CITBA and distinguished public servant and practitioner. Through his work in the field of customs and international trade law for over forty years, Andrew Vance maintained and improved the standards of practice and earned the respect and affection of countless lawyers, judges and scholars.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▶ Legal analysis</li> <li>▶ Thoroughness and depth of topic</li> <li>▶ Evaluation of judicial precedents, statutes, and regulations</li> <li>▶ Writing style</li> <li>▶ Form and quality of citations</li> <li>▶ Conformity with rules of competition</li> </ul>	